

'Stork Story'

FROM TORRANCE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Their first born, Richard Manuel, arrived to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barrera, 1630 W. 213th St., Jan. 30 at 6:18 a.m. Father of the 6 lb. 2 3/4 oz. baby is employed at Douglas Aircraft Co.; grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Barrera, 1630 W. 213th St., and Anacleto Muniz, Redondo Beach.

A first son, who joins Jean, 6, and Susan, 4, was born Feb. 11 at 2:10 p.m. to Douglas Aircraft Engineer J. A. Kerber and his wife, who live at 1953 Middlebrook Rd. Mrs. Marie Kerber, 2125 Lomita Blvd., Lomita, is the paternal grandmother.

U.S., WORLD IS AAUW MEET TOPIC

The picture of "America and the Changing World, Especially on the Domestic Front," will be brought before the American Association of University Women, San Pedro branch, next Wednesday when Dr. Ray Untereiner addresses the group at a 7:45 p.m. meeting in the San Pedro High School Auditorium.

Dr. Untereiner, professor in the Schools of Philosophy and Humanities at the Pasadena School of Technology, will be making one of his first talks since his return from the East coast, where he attended the inauguration and conferences with leading government officials.

Plans for the Wednesday session were made by members of the executive board when they met last week at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. Glenn Theye.

Plans also were made to hold a rummage sale Mar. 6 and 7 at 292 W. Sixth St. Mrs. Paul Truesdell, chairman, asked that members bring all articles for sale to the Mar. 4 club meeting or call her for pick-up services.

It was announced that Mesdames Gilbert B. Myers and William Messenger will represent the branch at the International Federation of University Women in London next June.

Elaine Rehwoldt Is Active in Planning Pepperdine Banquet

Miss Elaine Rehwoldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehwoldt, 1801 El Prado, is helping to cement international relations at Pepperdine College, where she is now a sophomore majoring in education.

As a member of Alpha Gamma, women's honorary service organization, Miss Rehwoldt worked with her club sisters in preparing entertainment for tonight's Melting Pot Banquet.

At this banquet, various nations of the world will be represented in table decor, and students from these nations will be on hand to participate in the festivities.

Since entering Pepperdine, Miss Rehwoldt has been active in music, drama, and sports. She also is treasurer of the sophomore class.

Four New War Moms To Take Active Role

Four new members of American War Mothers, Chapter No. 71, will take an active part in club work for the first time next Wednesday night, when the group holds an 8 o'clock meeting in the court room of the local City Hall.

The neophytes, Mesdames John Fredrick, Victor Peterson, Ethel Williamson, and Cecil Brown, will aid in planning spring social and service activities at the session.

Camp Fire Leaders Meet

Members of the Upper Harbor Leaders Association gave demonstrations of Indian crafts which they learned at the Atala's Workshop in Los Angeles when the group met last Thursday at the Torrance Community Chest meeting hall.

A Valentine's Day theme was carried out in the refreshments, served by the Halldale Ave. School Campfire and Bluebird leaders.

VISIT SON, FAMILY

Now visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Schnoor, 1103 Teri Ave., are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schnoor of Buffalo, N. Y. The easterners plan to spend about two months in Torrance, getting acquainted with their new granddaughter, Mary, who was born last fall.

PAST ORACLES TO MEET

A business session and card games will feature next Wednesday's meeting of the past oracles' Royal Neighbors to be held at the Gardens home of Mrs. Marie Bankston. Mrs. Louise Walker will be chairman for the evening.
